All Reasons Moving Earns Designation as Certified California ProMover

Silicon Valley Moving Company Recognized by California Moving & Storage Association

Sept. 7th, 2011 - San Jose, Calif. – All Reasons Moving, a Silicon Valley based company, is one of the first in California to receive the designation of Certified California ProMover by the California Moving & Storage Association (CMSA) and the American Moving & Storage Association (AMSA). All Reasons Moving is among a select group of Calif. intra-state household goods movers to be certified by the CMSA for their commitment to professional, ethical business practices and quality customer service.

Companies who qualify for the certification must uphold ethical and honest business practices. ProMover, the U.S. moving industry's consumer protection and certification program, is designed to fight fraud by giving consumers an easy way to separate reputable, professional movers from con artists out to make a quick buck at their expense. Every Calif. ProMover has pledged to abide by all applicable state regulations and the CMSA's Code of Ethics.

Calif. ProMovers are all screened to save consumers time and energy. The Calif. ProMover program takes the worry and the hassles out of moving by helping people easily identify quality professional movers in the Golden State. Every Calif. ProMover is only authorized to display the program's logo after undergoing an extensive background check to make sure they're who they say they are.

The Calif. ProMover designation is an extra line of protection for the consumer to be assured they won't get taken advantage of and they are in good hands.

About All Reasons Moving
