Membership in NAWBO is recorded in the name of the individual. Membership dues are nonrefundable and are billed annually. Upon joining, new members pay a full year's dues to National and the local chapter. Dues may be subject to change. Dues are not deductible as a charitable contribution for Federal Income Tax purposes. In compliance with the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993, it is estimated that 99% of the payment is deductible as a business expense.

Membership Information

NAWBO Silicon Valley is a dynamic professional organization for women just like you, business owners looking for a place to exchange ideas, meet new friends, and increase their visibility in the community.

NAWBO is an educational and leadership forum offering opportunities for women to learn how to improve and grow their businesses. Activities include on-going business development programs, seminars and regional and national conferences.

Join us on the third Tuesday of each month to hear dynamic speakers from all areas of the business world and exchange ideas with other business owners.

NAWBO has seven categories of membership. This allows experienced, active, growth-oriented business owners as well as new business owners, and other women who support the growth of women-owned businesses to actively participate in NAWBO-Silicon Valley. Please ask about specific requirements.

Established Business Owner – Active Chapter Member

An Active Member shall have been in business for at least two (2) years and be an experienced, growth-oriented business owner who is an individual, partner or stockholder who exercises the power to make policy decisions, is actively involved in the day-to-day management of and derives livelihood from the firm. A regular voting category, members receive all communications and publications, are eligible for all discounts and benefits, and are listed in the annual directory. Chapter membership is also required. To qualify for membership members must own a percentage of their company.

Established Business Owner – CHAPTER CHAMPION MEMBER

A Champion Member shall have been in business for at least two (2) years and be an experienced, growth-oriented business owner who is an individual, partner or stockholder who exercises the power to make policy decisions, is actively involved in the day-to-day management of and derives livelihood from the firm. A regular voting category, members receive all communications and publications, are eligible for all discounts and benefits, and are listed in the annual directory. Chapter membership is also required. To qualify for membership members must own a percentage of their company. Please visit the website, www.nawbo-sv.org, for a complete list of Chapter Champion Member benefits.

Emerging Business Owner

For a new business owner, who has been in business for two years or less. A non-voting category limited to two years, members receive all communications and publications, are eligible for all discounts and benefits, and are listed in the annual directory. Emerging Business Owners shall constitute no more than ten percent (10%) of the membership.

Supporting Member

Shall be an individual who subscribes to the objectives of NAWBO and wish to lend support to NAWBO through membership. Members in this classification shall not constitute more than 10% of the voting membership of a chapter and have no voting rights. Individuals applying for membership in the Supporting Membership Category must submit their applications directly to their respective chapter for approval. Any application directly received by the national office will be returned to the membership applicant.

Sustaining Member

Shall be a business owner as defined in the NAWBO Policies and Procedures and is a Chapter Member or an At-Large Member that subscribes to the objectives of NAWBO and wishes to support the organization in a larger monetary way and gain additional benefits. A member in this classification has one vote. Please contact the Membership Director or Association Manager if you desire to become a Sustaining Member.

Student Member

Shall be an individual who is a student registered full time at a school or university, who subscribes to the objectives of NAWBO and intends to start a business. Student members shall have no voting rights.

Retired Chapter Member

Shall be an individual who was a Chapter or At-Large member of NAWBO for at least (5) five years and has sold, divested their interest, or is no longer in their business. A member in this classification shall have one (1) vote.

At-Large Member

Shall be a business owner as defined in the NAWBO Policies and Procedures and whose business and residence are not located within a Chapter's organization territory, and who is an individual, partner, or stockholder who exercises the power to make policy decisions and is actively involved in the day-to-day management of the firm. A member in this classification has one (1) vote and is under the supervisor of NAWBO. All voting members must belong to a chapter of NAWBO if one exists in their area.

Any member may resign by filing out a written resignation to the local chapter or the NAWBO office.
No portion of any dues paid shall be refunded to the resigned member.

For a listing of member benefits please visit the NAWBO National website at www.nawbo.org and the Silicon Valley Chapter website at www.nawbo-sv.org.
